

TO STAND TRIAL.

Prisoners Brought from the Penitentiary.

HENDERSON AND VAUGHN.

The Former Will be Tried for the Murder of Old Man Hartong, the Latter for Burglary and Larceny—News of the County Seat.

CANTON, Nov. 17.—The jury in court room No. 1 was yesterday excused from duty until Tuesday morning. On Monday the case of the disposition of the money offered by the Bender Brothers, of Massillon, will come up. The court was informed that New Philadelphia lawyers, who represented applicants for the money, would be unable to be present, and desired a postponement. Judge McCarty said the case had been postponed once on their account, and as it had been specially assigned for next Monday it would have to take place.

Deputy Sheriff Crubaugh, Penitentiary Guard Bowman and Officer Brownberger, of the Massillon police force, returned from Columbus on the 5:40 Valley train Thursday evening, having in charge of William Henderson and Charles Vaughn, both serving sentences in the Ohio penitentiary, but both indicted and now to stand trial, the former for the murder of Adam Hartong, near Greentown several years ago, and the latter for burglary and larceny. Extra precautions were taken to preserve the utmost secrecy in regard to the bringing of Henderson, as Sheriff Zaiser had received information that friends would either rescue Henderson, or if impossible to do this, had stated that they would see that he would never reach Canton alive. Both prisoners were assigned counsel by Judge McCarty this morning. Judge Baldwin and J. J. Grant will be Henderson's attorney, and D. C. Hughes will defend Vaughn.

Prosecuting Attorney Pomerene has entered a petition in supreme court, praying for a reversal of a recent mandate of the circuit court, reversing a decision of Judge McCarty's, by which A. B. Winnett was sentenced to the penitentiary for obtaining a signature to a note under false pretenses. Winnett has been released from the penitentiary.

Candidates expense accounts have been filed as follows: County Commissioner Summer, $258; J. B. Schallig, who failed as candidate for sheriff, $200.25; T. H. Smith, county treasurer, $320.50, of which $250 was paid as an assessment; Andrew Reese, infirmary director, $80.25, his assessment being $75.

Application has been made for the appointment of a receiver and master commissioner to take charge of the Navarre Glass, Marble and Specialty Company. The appointment is asked for in the case of Mary Huwig against the company, which is now pending in court. Judge McCarty appointed Attorney D. C. Hughes as such receiver and master commissioner.

The will has been filed for probate in the estate of Joseph Donnelly, of Massillon.

The application to probate the will has been continued in the estate of Elizabeth James, of Massillon.

ELECTION EXPENSES.

Candidates File Statements of Money Spent During the Campaign.

Sheriff John J. Zaiser has filed his election expense account, which amounted to $329.25. In this sum is included $200 paid to the county committee as an assessment, and the balance was expended in hotel bills and printing.

George W. Wilhelm, state senator-elect, pleads guilty to spending $292 of this amount $150 went to the Stark county committee as an assessment, and $100 to the Carroll county committee.

George R. Snavely, land appraiser in Tuscarawas township, spent $3.50, and it cost Jonas E. Eschliman $7.75 for that office in Lawrence township. Amos B. Mase, of Bethlehem township, land appraiser, got through the campaign without any expenses.

FROM NEARBY TOWNS.

WILLIAM FINDLEY, TRUSTEE.

CANAL FULTON, Nov. 18.—William Findley, of Newman, has been appointed, by Justice of the Peace Pollock, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Trustee Roderick, of Lawrence township. No better man could be found within the limits of the township. The members of St. Philips and James church are making arrangements for an unusually pleasant time on Thanksgiving evening. After the supper, which will be a most sumptuous one, an entertainment consisting of music, recitations, etc., will be given. The committee in charge has been greatly annoyed over the announcement that a dance would follow the supper.

Lichness of the skin, horrible plague. Most everybody afflicted in one way or another. Only one safe, never failing cure. Doan's Ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.

WORK ON THE RUINS.

What was Spared by the Big Fire is Rapidly Being Cleared Away.

Work on the West Main street ruins is well under way. Merchants who sustained losses during the fire, are on hand to take charge of goods as they are brought out of their former store rooms. A considerable portion of F. E. Seaman's stock is yet in a good condition, and is being stored in an empty store room, near the Pennsylvania tracks, in West Main street. Very little of the Crone stock is worth taking out. Dr. C. C. Miller this morning recovered effects to the value of $25. A portion of the bricks can be used in rebuilding for backing, while many are absolutely worthless, and are being dumped into the old basin in the rear of the Kiehl mill. The bricks have been cleared away from the low-path. Endeavors are being made to have the entire grounds cleared before the setting in of cold weather.

WEIGHING OF MAIL.

A Large Amount Sent from Massillon.

OVER 13,000 POUNDS.

Great Quantity of Campaign Matter Makes Mail Heavy in Some Cities—Object of the Weighing is Not Known.

Postoffice clerks all over the United States have completed the weighing of mail, which has been going on by order of the Washington authorities, for the past thirty-five days, or from October 3 to November 6, inclusive. Through the courtesy of Mail Clerk Shepley, THE INDEPENDENT is enabled to print the figures obtained at the Massillon office. Only such mail as originates in Massillon, is included in the figures. Out of a total of 13,250 pounds and 10 ounces of matter handled, 84,232 pieces were first class matter, weighing 1,316 pounds and 7 ounces. Second class matter numbered 47,660 pieces, weighing 3,666 pounds and 4 ounces. Third and fourth class matter weighing 933 pounds and 13 ounces; government matter, 41 pounds and 11 ounces; and equipment matter 7,309 pounds.

The amount is not supposed to be as large in proportion as that of Canton or Wooster. These cities are county seats and the vast amount of political correspondence sent through the country during the late campaign, was sent from county seat postoffices. Of course, Massillon received its full share of this, but as nothing but what was mailed here was weighed at the local office, and, as little, if any of this matter was sent from the Massillon office, the figures obtained here did not sustain a corresponding increase.

Members of the local force are at a loss to ascribe a cause for the weighing. Several papers in the state have said that it was for the purpose of obtaining an average of the amount of mail handled during a given time, and that from this average the railway and steamboat rates for carrying mail were to be fixed. This, however, the Massillon clerks are inclined to regard as extremely unlikely. Mail is weighed for this last named purpose only once in four years, and it was done but little more than a year ago. What is more, they say that to choose this time for such a purpose would be unfair, on account of the already mentioned abundance of mail.

NEWS FROM CANTON.

A Vacancy Will Soon Exist in Workhouse Board of Directors.

CANTON, Nov. 16.—On the 11th of December the term of H. W. Loeffler, of Massillon, as workhouse director will expire, and it is probable that on that date the county commissioners will select a successor, for a term of five years. The board at present consists of three Republicans and two Democrats, and according to law a Democrat will have to be elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Loeffler's retirement. A new superintendent will also be elected, and "Jack" Pontius, the present incumbent, is said to have all his lines out to catch a re-election. There are other candidates, and Mr. Pontius may have up hill work in landing the prize.

The executor of the estate of George Young, deceased, of Massillon, filed a statement in probate court showing that at the time of his death he was insolvent. There are assets of $1,250.30. The liabilities are $3,171 of general claims and $2,600 of preferred claims, making $5,771 in all of debts.

The inventory and appraisement has been filed in the estate of Jacob Shetler, of Bethlehem township.

George R. Snavely, of Tuscarawas township, C. E. Graber, of Perry, and Amos B. Mase, of Bethlehem, land appraisers, have been sworn in, and are given until Saturday to file their bonds of $2,000 each.

REMINISCENCES.

Not Much to See Here in 1829-32.

SWAMPS AND SCRUB OAKS.

C. H. King's Pen Picture of Massillon Seventy Years Ago—A Pioneer Apostle of Good Roads—Town Lots Sold at One Dollar Per Front Foot.

Massillon was laid out by James Duncan, one of the most energetic, pushing, thorough-going men I ever knew, and Mrs. Duncan, a noble, godly woman, named the place after the Rev. Jean Baptiste Massillon, one of the greatest and best divines of France during the seventeenth century. I first saw Massillon in April, 1829. There was not much of it but the canal, swamps, ridges, gullies and scrub oaks. A short time previous to this Judge Henry, of Brookfield, had a yoke of cattle swamp where the brick store room now stands at the northwest corner of Main and Erie streets. At that time there were no buildings between the river and canal, and very few south of Sippo run. There were no buildings north of the lots bordering on Main street, east of Erie street, excepting a little brick building known as the "Quaker meeting house." It stood about halfway up the hill and something like fifty rods north of Main street, and was not much used. The whole side of the hill, north of Main street, was covered with scrub oaks, with a few large trees, and many a rabbit my uncle and I caught there. Main street extended only from the west side of the basin to somewhere near the present M. E. church. The west end of the road turned due north until opposite the northwest corner of the canal basin, where it again turned and crossed the river. The travel east left Main street several squares east of the park, and meandered north over ridges and through gullies to the top of the hill, east of the graveyard, south of Kendall, to near Sippo creek. It then turned south down the hill and crossed the creek (no bridge) about where Main street now crosses it.

At that time the Folgers kept the "Commercial Inn" at the corner of Main and Erie streets. The elder Mrs. Folger superintended the culinary department, and it was said that in cooking she "could beat the Dutch." Jacob Miller kept tavern about two squares east on the south side of Main street; Alexander McCulley kept a store north of Miller's tavern, and Isaiah Brown kept one farther west near "Commercial Inn." It seems to me there was another store there then, but I cannot now place it, or remember who kept it. Benjamin Raser, was the first shoemaker. He always owned a shoe shop, but never a lot to set it on. He became a major of the militia and lived to be quite old. Bernah Brooks, a good christian man, was the first doctor; he lived east of McCulley's store and died comparatively young. Jacob J. Babbey was the first cabinet maker and coffin maker (there were no undertakers in those days). He put up a large sign, having on it a bureau, a bedstead and a coffin. The coffin part of it so incensed the community that he was forced to put a chest in its place. As every young person then thought they had to have a chest with a till in one end, it was considered all right. His place was over the first ridge, south side of east Main. West of Babbey's, on top of the hill, Thomas Blackburn started the first chair and paint shop. When Main street was cut down to its present grade, his house stood from twenty to twenty-five feet above the street; he was the first Justice of the Peace. George Castleman was among the first carpenters.

There were three ware-houses in the town; one north of the bridge, the big yellow one east of the basin and a small one farther up the canal. There were but two streets viable, Main and Erie. Erie was then called "The Bethlehem Road." It commenced about where THE INDEPENDENT office now stands, and north of this was a by-road meandering to the east around a swamp then north and west to "Earl's bridge."

Mrs. Walker put up the first "milliner and mantua maker" sign south side of Main, east of Erie. Then all store bonnets were of leghorn; the plaits had to be taken apart and bleached with sulphur about once a year. There was leghorn enough in some of the then fashionable bonnets to make ten or a dozen of some of the fashionable ones I have seen since.

About this time "steam doctors" were more plentiful than steam engines. One of these fellows came to Massillon, and "could cure all the ills man was subject to by steaming them. One remedy for all diseases." He did help some, but most of his patients died. Among them I remember James Duncan, Jr., and the first wife of H. B. Harris. He soon left.

There is probably no three years in the history of Massillon that the increase in population, business, buildings and general improvements will exceed in percentage the three years from 1829 to 1832. During this time, in addition to what I have already related, William and Daniel McCulley started the first hardware store, just west of Aleck's dry goods store. Hiram B. and Marshal D. Wellman started a store on the southwest corner of Main and Erie streets.

They set their building on posts about three feet from the ground, and had four wide planks, from sixteen to eighteen feet long, from the front door over a ditch of water to Main street. They also built a warehouse, and were the first to "pay cash for wheat." They did an enormous business. Next to James Duncan, I think that Marshal D. Wellman did more for the improvement of Massillon than any other one man. He was great on "good roads," and greatly owing to his exertions the Millersburg road was made to Mt. Eaton, to draw Holmes county wheat to Massillon, instead of going to Bethlehem. Hundreds of dollars did he raise and expend on roads to secure the wheat trade for Massillon. He would first raise by subscription all the money he could—then he would go to persons near where he wanted to make an improvement, and say "how many days' work with your team will you give to cut down Jones' hill, or haul gravel on corduroy on Smith's swamp?" He actually raised money in Wooster to fill up the mud hole between the square and the P. Ft. W. & C. depot, so that the road to Massillon would be better than the road to Canal Fulton.

I also remember of H. B. Harris, Joseph Hogan, Dr. Abel Underhill and his brother, and John Eberhard, who put up the first brick building west of the canal. The latter was quite prominent in religious matters as well as secular. He was the first Sabbath school superintendent. The Breed Brothers kept the first meat market. Their slaughter house was out of town by the river, west of the basin. They had a large black bear, which they kept chained to a scrub oak. It was fun for us boys to tease him, and this made him very cross. At one time, had his chain been two feet longer, these lines would not have been written.

Patton, Hull & Shepherd built the stone warehouse on the north side of the south basin, afterwards used as a steam mill. I don't believe there was a steam engine running anywhere in Stark county in 1832.

A terrible storm struck Massillon in '29 or '30. A large dwelling partly finished, standing two or three blocks south west of the canal bridge, was blown down, and Thomas Benskin and his two boys, the carpenters, were badly hurt. The Atwaters, J. D. and D. R. were the first regular grocers, and for years stood at the head of their profession. J. V. C. Teller was the first druggist. He made "Grodfrey's Cordial" and "Batemans Drops" by the tub full. Then came Dr. Joseph Watson with a very large stock of drugs. Rufus Hardy was the first hatter. He manufactured his hats. He was also the first class leader in the M. E. church. Peter Brown (colored) was the first baker, and dealt principally in gingerbread and small beer, on the south side of Main street. Luther L. Foot was the first attorney-at-law. He built one of the brick buildings near the top of the hill in East Main street. Dr. Wolf, from Baltimore, built, or at least lived in the other brick. He was advertised as the "great German doctor from Baltimore." His friends said that "he brought a whole chest full of medicine along with him." James Duncan owned a grist mill, wool carding machine and fulling mill on Sippo run, southeast of the park. The grist mill was attended by John Brown, the other works by Daniel Congleton.

In 1829 Mr. Duncan platted a number of lots, sixty-foot front, south of Sippo run, and offered them for sale at a dollar a foot front. I frequently heard people say "who would be fool enough to give him sixty dollars for a lot away out in the country."

In April, 1832, my family moved to Sugar Creek township, and in the fall moved to Reynolds Mill, south of Canton.

ADDS HER EVIDENCE.

Story is the Same as from Other Sources.

Lots of Money Spent, but no Returns Have Been Received.

The people in Ohio willingly add their evidence to that which has already been given in favor of Morrow's Kid-ne-o-ids, the best remedy that has ever been sold in this state for backache, kidney and urinary disorders, sleeplessness and nervousness. Our druggists report wonderful cures and state that Kid-ne-o-ids are daily increasing in the opinion of our people. Kid-ne-o-ids act directly upon the kidneys and nerves and restores them to their natural condition. Good kidneys make good blood, good blood makes strong nerves, Kid-ne-o-ids make good kidneys and strong nerves.

Mrs. L. T. Judd, 317 North street, Coshocton, Ohio, says:—"I have been troubled for some time with aching pains across the small of my back, also with rheumatism. My husband brought a package of Morrow's Kid-ne-o-ids, and I took them according to directions, and in less than a week after I began taking them the pains in my back and my rheumatism both disappeared and I have not noticed a sign of either since."

Morrow's Kid-ne-o-ids are not pills but Yellow Tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box at all drug stores and at F. E. Seaman's drug store.

THE NEW RAILWAY.

All About the Barberton-Massillon Electric Line.

RIGHT OF WAY SECURED.

The Road Will Pass Through the Main Business Thoroughfare of Canal Fulton—Route May Take in Newman.

CANAL FULTON, Nov. 16.—Right of way for the Barberton-Massillon electric railway through Canal street, the main business thoroughfare of this place, has practically been secured, although certain steps are yet to be taken by the council before an ordinance granting the franchise can be passed. Wm. Garver, of Canal Dover, is one of the promoters of the road, and it is now expected that it will be extended beyond Massillon to the former place, connecting with the New Philadelphia and Uhrichsville electric railway, thus forming a direct line between Barberton and Uhrichsville. So far the route of the road has not been decided upon farther than three miles south of Canal Fulton. It may go by way of Millport, but a still better route would take it over what is known as the Butter bridge and on through Youngstown Hill and Newman, thus escaping a heavy grade.

Work on the main road will probably not be commenced before spring, but it is expected that ground will soon be broken for the spur which is to run from Barberton to Doylestown.

Invitations are out for an entertainment to be given at the residence of John Burkholder this evening. A collation is to be served at 7 o'clock. There will be fifty guests present.

The C. M. E. society, of Massillon, which was to have come here on Tuesday, failed to turn up, causing general disappointment.

The Canal Fulton Catholic church will give a dinner and supper to the opera house on Thanksgiving day, to be followed by a dance in the evening.

AMERICAN EXPRESS.

The Company will Continue to do Business in Massillon.

Notwithstanding the fact that the American Express Co.'s contract with the C. M. E. railway expired, Wednesday evening, and has not been renewed, the former company will not discontinue business in Massillon. Matter sent over its lines will come into the city over the C. L. & W., or W. & L. E. railways. The future policy of the C. M. E. company is problematical, but it may be possible that it will handle express matter independently.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—General Otis cables the war department that MacArthur's column entered Gerona yesterday, with but trifling opposition, and his advance was pushed forward as far as Paniqui, a distance of four miles. The railroad, with the exception of one washout, is intact from Tarlac to Paniqui, and enough rolling stock is available to furnish transportation for supplies.

General Lawton, from a point between San Nicholas and San Manuel, sends dispatches. General Young, on the 16th, was moving on Pozzarriba, twelve miles east of San Fabian, where the insurgents hold a strong position. The troops are subsisting off the country, and the inhabitants gave them a cordial reception. General Lawton reports the drowning of one of his aides, Lieutenant Luna, while crossing the Agona river, and again speaks of the endurance and cheerfulness of the men of his command.

Colonel Hayes telegraphs from San Iidro that he still holds the secretary of the interior of Aguinaldo's government as a prisoner.

TAYLOR WINS.

Democrats Concede His Election by a Plurality of 261.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 18.—[By Associated Press.]—At Glasgow, today, Judge Jones granted a writ directing the precinct election officers of that county to correct an error in their certificates and make true certification of the votes cast in their respective precincts for William S. Taylor, heretofore certified by them for William P. Taylor. Democratic newspaper figures today, for the first time, show a plurality for Taylor on the official returns from seventy-eight counties, and Jefferson unofficial, giving Taylor 261. Republican newspapers and the Republican state headquarters, from unofficial returns, make Taylor's plurality 3,134. The discrepancy cannot be accounted for until returns is made to the state board. The United States grand jury today found twenty indictments against election officers, withholding names until arrests are made.

Queen Victoria is the grandmother of a large portion of civilized Europe and at no time in the history of Great Britain has she been more anxious to acknowledge this relationship than at present, when the government is making a military effort seven thousand miles away and when the justice of its attack upon the liberty-loving Boers is being questioned by the world at large.

Another indication of the present prosperity of the country is apparent in the results of the investigation which Comptroller of the Currency Dawes has just made into the number of loans and deposit accounts, rates of interest and resources of the combined banks of the United States in the years 1880, 1894 and 1899. In collecting this data, nearly ten thousand reports from banks have been examined and compiled. The results of the investigation indicate a magnitude of banking resources and a rate of growth in number of deposit accounts which is unparalleled in the history of the world.

Professor Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton, believes that the university of today should teach soldierly qualities as well as the critical temper. He also believes in football and thinks it is an excellent way of bringing out the fighting stuff in men. "The football player," he says, "must exercise self-control and use his strength to a worthy purpose just as a soldier must. Whether or not we need soldiers to fight, we need men with soldierly qualities." Certainly if familiarity with the sight of blood, and the brutality of the average football scrimmage is calculated to endow the adolescent citizen with soldierly qualities, the gridirons' the thing.

Very little doubt now exists concerning the truth of the report that the death blow has been struck Aguinaldo's army, and Washington officials appear to be more hopeful of a speedy end to the insurrection in the Philippines than they have been at any time since the opening of the fall campaign. The United States troops now control more territory than they have at any time since the campaign began. Their lines extend further north than any point which has before been reached, and all reports from the front are said to indicate an almost complete disintegration of the insurgent army. The surrender of Tarlac means the end of the effective operation of the so-called Filipino government. The insurrection will now become simply a matter of brigandage.

The seething and hissing of the editorial cauldron of our esteemed contemporary, the Canton News-Democrat, has settled down to a gentle simmer since the close of the campaign. Like the New York Evening Post, it is no longer moved to tears by the thought that the Filipino leader is being squelched. "There isn't an American with an ounce of patriotic blood in his veins," says the Democrat, "who does not sincerely hope that Aguinaldo will be caught soon," and then, anent the Philippine war, utters these words pregnant with meaning: "It ought to have been finished before it began, but now that it has begun it ought to be finished." How beautiful it is to observe this change of front, and yet how sad to consider how cruelly contorted must be the feelings of THE INDEPENDENT's old friend, Archibald McGregor.

The Outlook continues to rally ponderously around the Hon. Sam Jones, of Toledo. "The popularity of the man and the platform upon which he carried on his vigorous campaign," it says, "were the astonishing political development of the year." The "political development of the year" in Ohio is indeed astonishing as viewed from a back office in Fourth avenue, New York city. Will someone explain to the reverend editor of the Outlook that the old Populists in the rural districts of the state and a certain element among the laboring men voted for Jones through ignorance or because they wouldn't vote for McLean and hated the Republicans; but that Jones's platform was nothing but Jones, and that with the exception of a few people who have been momentarily deluded by his seemingly plausible talk and publications, Ohio does not take Jones seriously? The qualifications of the Outlook as an educator are undoubtedly. They should not be imperiled.

E. K. Rife in his notes on politics and politicians, predicts that the coming state legislature will be one of the most important in the history of Ohio, and that much legislation of importance to the people will be enacted. One of the acts of the coming winter will be the reapportionment of the state for legislative purposes. This will be done by a board consisting of Governor Nash, Auditor Guilbert and Secretary of State Kinney. Under the apportionment made by this board the seventy fifth general assembly will be elected, and that body will have the election of a successor to Senator Foraker. The assembly just chosen was elected under the last or fifth decennial period. On account of circumstances over which the Ohio Democrats have no control, the state will not be gerrymandered for congressional purposes this winter by that party. There has been a change in the arrangements, and the Republicans will get all they are entitled to—thanks to the big majority rolled up in both houses.

Dispatches from Nebraska announce that Bryan is going to devote the winter to the reformation of the East. The move, he says, is not necessarily a boom in a political way for him, but is intended to stir the latent spirit of the Democrats of that region. Bryan has so recently demonstrated his inability to stir the "latent spirit" of the Democrats of Ohio and Kentucky that his proposed descent upon New England, brimming over with the political heresies and the panic producing theories which he represents, is not expected to have any appreciable effect. Mr. Bryan went to Kentucky and its citizens flocked by thousands to hear him speak, then went home, considered the substance of his remarks and rejected them sensibly. He came to this state to overthrow his political adversary, and failed lamentably as is well known. New England has just rejected the treasonable doctrines which Bryan has adopted, and it is doubtful whether the words with which the self-seeking gabbler of Nebraska expects to stir the latent spirit of its citizens will command either confidence or respect.

MISS ANTHONY'S POSITION.

It is curious to think of the foremost champion of woman's rights placing herself on record in the Brigham Roberts controversy as advocating the seating in Congress of the Mormon representative, but when Susan B. Anthony makes a statement there is usually something back of it, and her position in this instance is characteristic. Miss Anthony does not believe that the Federated Women's Clubs of New York state should ask Congress to do what is unconstitutional. She conceives that it would be unparliamentary to ask Congress to do what it has no power to do. "When a man is elected," she says, "and his credentials are properly signed, that body must receive him." And continues:

"There isn't a man in congress who dares raise his voice against Roberts. If he does his own record will then be sifted to the bottom."

"It is only a question of religion with the Mormons, which will only be remedied with the light of civilization."

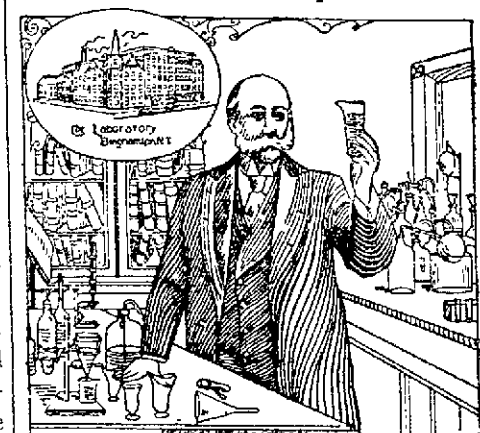

"Why we should go away off to Utah to pick out a man to censure and condemn I cannot understand, for, as I said, almost all men are guilty of violating the sanctity of the home. Then, as I said, let the men fight it out."

"The trouble is we have a double standard of morality."

There is much truth in what Miss Anthony says. The insidious introduction of Mormon power into the politics of the country should be guarded against, but it is doubtful if the impractical efforts of hysterical women to force one Mormon to resign his seat in congress, to which he has been duly and honestly elected, will do much toward the accomplishment of this design.

Give the Children a Drink called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take in place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant, but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. A drug bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y. and mention this paper.

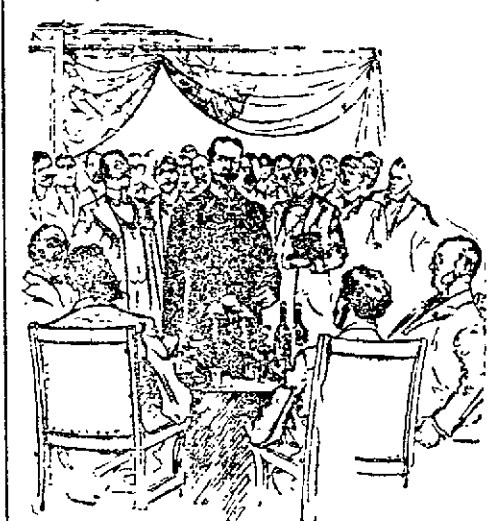

NOTES FROM GOTHAM

HELEN GOULD WORKS FOR PERMANENT DEWEY ARCH.

Baby Marion to Go on the Stage—Taste Runs Riot—The Blue Pencil Club—Chinese Restaurants—How the Tramps Get Free Shaves.

"We really couldn't let you lift the America's Cup, but we freely and heartily tender you another trophy, a loving cup, and always wish you well."

That sentiment was the keynote of the luncheon and reception given to Sir Thomas Lipton by the members of the Transportation club at the Manhattan hotel. Senator Depew, president of the club, who presided, voiced the sentiment.

Reception to Sir Thomas Lipton.

There was a strong hint, too, that Sir Thomas had an anxious sweetheart across the herring-pond who was viewing with some anxiety the popular favor accorded the cup challenger and who feared he might lose his heart as well as the international trophy.

Helps the Merchant Out.

The General Appraisers' Board of Classification ruled that there is no import duty on whiskey that has been sent out of the country and returned in bottles. There is a duty on the bottles, and that is all, except the internal revenue rate of $1.10 per proof gallon, which would be paid whether whiskey traveled or not. This may or may not be interesting to the consumer, but it certainly means something to the merchant who deals in bottled American goods with a European label.

Helen Gould as Chairman.

Miss Helen Gould will probably serve as chairman of the committee of women who will interest themselves in making the Dewey arch permanent. This announcement was made by Col. C. W. Church, of the Citizens' committee. It is thought that the Women's committee will accomplish at least as much as the men. This committee will include in its membership patriotic women in all parts of the country, and all such are earnestly requested to give the committee such assistance as is in their power.

Baby Marion.

It is probable that little Marlon Clarke who was made famous on account of being kidnapped and then restored to her parents last summer, will go on the stage this winter. She has been in the country all summer with her mother and is entirely restored to health. Several offers were made to her parents some months ago, but were declined. Now it is said that she may appear as a central figure in a child's pantomime, to be produced in a vaudeville theatre at Christmas holiday time.

Interest in Baby Marion has not died out, and the experienced manager who has made a bid for her services is satisfied that it will be revived to a paying degree when the little one appears before the footlights.

From the Sultan.

Miss Grace Sydney Darling was married to John Ringgold in this city the other day, and among her gifts was one that was never received before by an American bride. It was the order of the Chefekat sent by the Sultan of Turkey, who knew and admired the fair American girl in Constantinople, where she was very popular in diplomatic circles during her father's residence there. The Chefekat is the only decoration ever bestowed in Turkey on women, and, as a rule, is given only to the nobility and court attaches. It is a large star of gold, enameled in relief, with green leaves and scarlet berries, and engraved with the Sultan's monogram and crest. The order hangs from a bow of white ribbon, bordered with a red and green stripe.

A Woman Admitted.

The first woman ever admitted to practice in the District Court of the United States for the Southern district of New York, was sworn in the other day. She is Miss Alice Serber, a Russian, and is the first woman of that nationality ever admitted to the bar of the United States. She came to this country eight years ago, and could not speak a sentence of English at that time. She mastered the language, and was admitted to the New York State bar within five years thereafter, and has been known for the last three years as a forceful, successful lawyer.

Taste Runs Riot.

Chatelaine charms of queer patterns are the vogue in London and some of them have already been seen in New York. They are of chased gold, studded with gems, and take the forms of flying fishes, poodles with their bodies shaved, monkeys clinging head downward to limbs of trees, and other zoological specimens. The smart London woman does not feel that she is in the swim without something of this kind dangling from her waist and the jewelers are racking their brains for new designs embodying in a general way the reigning craze. They harmonize gracefully with the beetles, caterpillars and lizards that are still fashionable for brooches, hairpins and hat ornaments.

She Will Try Again.

Bettina Girard was discharged from Bellevue hospital where she had been under treatment for alcoholism. In her gray tailor-made gown and her jaunty hat she looked as distinguished as in the old days in Washington when "Betty Ordway" was regarded as a perfect exemplar of the American belle of high degree. Blood will tell, and Betty Girard never loses the aristocratic dash and swing that are hers by hereditary right. It is understood that she intends to show her friends that reformation is not impossible for her, and to go on the stage again this winter. She is one of the cleverest actresses in some lines in this country, and managers will be only too glad to get her, if they are satisfied that she has overcome her besetting weakness for good and all. With so many inferior actresses on the stage it seems a pity indeed to lose the services of so good a one as Bettina Girard.

Can Console Together.

"The Blue Pencil Club" is the name of a new organization of newspaper writers established downtown. Contributors to newspapers all know the meaning of the fatal blue pencil, which editors use to erase unavailable matter from an article, so that there is something ominous in this title being given to a club. It suggests that the members have had sad experience with the blue pencil in the hands of unappreciative editors.

Messengers to the Front.

A messenger boy saw a man crawling into the basement of an art store uptown early the other morning. The lad gave an alarm and doubtless stopped a burglar, for there was a covered wagon close by which, it is supposed, was to be used to cart away stolen property. By the time a policeman had got into the building the burglar had escaped and the wagon had been driven away, but there was just as much credit due to the boy. The little fellows in uniform who are such a common feature of modern city life soon become almost preternaturally sharpened by their contact with all kinds of people and their public spirit never flags. If all the successful business men in New York who began life as messenger boys were to hold a convention it would require a large building to hold them all. And they are all as proud of their original calling as any college-bred man can be of his alma mater.

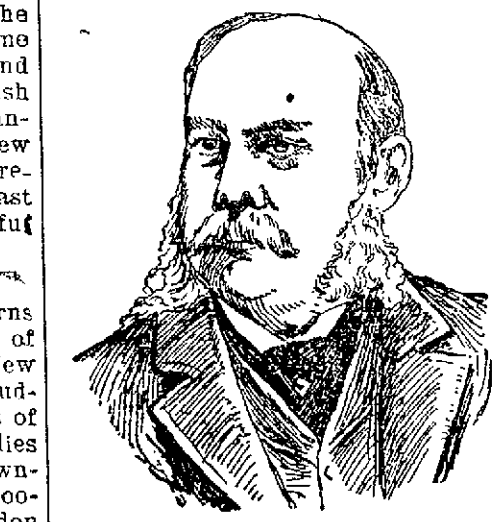

Latest Gastronomic Caper.

"Chinese restaurants" are springing up all over New York. They can be seen many times repeated uptown, and in the Bowery they are frequent. Now Brooklyn has caught the craze. It is not in evidence that Chinese dishes and cookery are preferable to the American, French or Italian cuisine. Chop suey and birds' nest soup do not appeal to the ordinary Caucasian palate more than roast beef, pate de foies gras, or spaghetti, but there is a decided disposition in persons who seek a new gastronomic sensation to go into one of these poky little Chinese places and to eat rice with chopsticks and chop suey with a wooden spoon. It must be said, however, that service by a Chinese waiter is as nearly perfect as it can be and he has learned to look for a tip with as sharp an eye as any French or Italian waiter who has centuries of experience.

Willies Don't Wait.

A long line of weary Willies and tired Tonies may be seen early in the morning lined up along a certain block in the Bowery, waiting for something. It might be a loaf of bread, or some hot coffee, but it isn't. The faces of the men look as if they had not been shaved for a month, and their hair hangs in tangled masses over their ears. But see those same hobsos an hour later, and they are clean shaven, while their hair is trimmed in the latest Bowery fashion. They are clean and neat, and have been converted apparently into respectable workmen. They have served as "subjects" in a barber school. It is not to be supposed that men will pay to be shaved and clipped by pupil, so the proprietor of the place offers a free shave and haircut to all who care to submit themselves to the operation. What the shaved men have suffered in the barber's chair while some ambitious tyro has exercised his uncertain razor upon the month's stubble only the victim can say. He generally looks very red about the chin and there are sometimes tears standing in his eyes when he emerges from the school, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that he has had a free shave and there is evidently a great deal of comfort in that. There is never any scarcity of "subjects," no matter what may be the tortures threatened.

Havemeyer King of the Sugar Trust. Henry Hentz, who was President of the New York Coffee Exchange, New York Produce Exchange, New York Cotton Exchange, and a leader in the organization of the Citizens' League of Brooklyn, is again in court trying to collect for his services in bringing about the formation of the Sugar Trust. His suit reveals for the first time the plan on which the combine was formed. Mr. Hentz's suit for $225,000 for alleged breach of contract against Henry O. Havemeyer, Frederick H. Havemeyer and Theodore E. Havemeyer was placed on trial before Justice Andrews and a jury in the Supreme Court. Mr. Hentz declares that the American Sugar Refining company, which succeeded the Sugar Refineries company, which was declared illegal and criminal in 1890, after having been in existence three years, is now being operated under the same plan. Although the original company was dissolved, he feels something is due him from the American company.

KILLING OF INNOCENTS.

Corcoran Likely Insane When 'He Committed His Terrible Crimes and Suicided.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Cornelius Corcoran shot four of his children, killing two of them, and then ended his own life. The tragedy occurred at his home, 6401 Dearborn street.

The Dead.

Cornelius Corcoran, 49 years.
Margaret Corcoran, 5 years old, died at Mercy hospital.
John Corcoran, 7 years old, died at Mercy hospital.

The Wounded.

Kate Corcoran, 14 years old, may die. If she recovers will lose her left eye.
Lizzie Corcoran, 8 years old, may die. The other night, hearing the children cough, he arose and in the dark administered laudanum to five of them, Clifford, Timothy, John, Margaret and Lizzie.

The first two were removed to the Mercy hospital, where Timothy died the next day. Corcoran exhibited such profound grief over the affair that the police and the coroner thought the giving of laudanum was a mistake.

Balked in his purpose to end the lives of the young ones, Corcoran, it is thought, made deliberate plans for his act.

The grandmother of the children, Mrs. Margaret Wrenn, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Mamie Corbett, called. While they were waiting in the hall he did the shooting.

Evidences of Corcoran's intention to kill his children were seen in the house. In one room empty whisky and wine bottles showed he had given the children liberally of the liquor and stupefied them.

Corcoran was injured about three years ago in a collision with a cable car, while driving a mail wagon. His leg was broken and his brain was affected, it is said. Six months ago Corcoran's wife, the daughter of Mrs. Wrenn, became insane, and since that time she has been an inmate of an asylum at Kankakee. "Cornelius has never been right since his accident," said Mrs. Wrenn. "He has always acted queerly, and when my daughter became ill it affected him. He never would have done such a dreadful thing if he had been in his right mind."

The only child to escape injury was Marion, 16 years old, who is at the hospital nursing her brother Clifford.

CHURCHES IN PORTO RICO.

M. E. Missionary Society to Build Two.
Distribution of Missionary Funds.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The general committee on missionary work in the Methodist church continued the apportionment of funds for home missions among the non-English speaking classes. The amounts voted were: German, $42,348; French, $4,650; Spanish, $14,880, and Chinese, $9,000.

It was decided, after considerable discussion, to organize two churches in Porto Rico, one at Ponce and one at San Juan. An appeal will be made by the Church Extension society to build the churches. The committee appropriated $6,000 for their maintenance when built. Of this $6,381 is already on hand in the committee's fund.

The Italian work in New Orleans, New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and Buffalo fared very well at the hands of the committee and there were some very substantial increases all along the line. Among the appropriations made for missions in the United States not heretofore given were Norwegian and Danish, $19,826; Japanese, including Honolulu, $9,000; Italian, $13,682.

SOME POLICIES NOT EXEMPT.

Decision Regarding Insurance Policies Under War Revenue Act.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Commissioner Wilson of the internal revenue bureau rendered an important decision, in which he held in effect that the policies of life insurance companies which are exempt from taxation under the war revenue act are only such as are issued by fraternal societies or orders, beneficial societies or orders, farmers' purely local co-operative companies or associations, and employees' relief associations operated on the lodge system or local co-operative plan, and that the exemption does not apply to the policies of life insurance issued by mutual insurance companies per se, although they may have features of mutuality.

A further restriction imposed by the law on the exempted companies was that they should not be "conducted for profit."

NOTICED THIS BEFORE.

You Probably Have, and May Have Spoken About It.

The reader of this newspaper, if he takes the time and trouble to look carefully through its columns, will probably find half a dozen statements tacked onto the foot of reading notices about medicinal preparations. Note this fact. In each and every case, as far as Massillon is concerned, as far as the reader's knowledge of the party is concerned, he might just as well live in the moon. Make another note of this. The only remedy on the market which gives testimony at home, local proof in every town and city in the Union, to back up its claims, is Doan's Kidney Pills. They all try it, but they cannot do it. Why they are unable to do it can safely be left with the reader to draw his own conclusions. Here is Massillon proof for Massillon readers: Mrs. Thomas Leahy, mother of Mrs. Thos. Hagan, No. 328 Erie street, with whom she makes her home, says: "I am now 72 years of age and have lived in the city the greater part of my life. I had lagrippe some years ago and it affected my kidneys, causing backache a good part of the time, pains in the sides over the hips and up to the shoulders, particularly when I stooped over. It was more severe in changeable weather or when I took a slight cold, and it got so bad that when the doctors found they could not relieve me they said, 'Oh, you are too old, we can't help you.' My daughter got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Baltzly's drug store, thinking they would do me some good. They did, and that in a very short time. I have found them so beneficial that I can recommend them with great pleasure. If Doan's Kidney Pills will help a person of my age I am quite sure they will help anyone."

MACARTHUR MOVES.

Began His Advance on Bayombong.

STARTED NORTH FROM TARLAC.

Composition of His Force—Colonel Howes Advanced to Rosales—A Letter Found From American Prisoners at Victoria. Insurgents Reported Missing.

MANILA, Nov. 18.—8:25 a. m.—General MacArthur, with the Thirty-sixth infantry, a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, a troop of the Fourth cavalry, several Gatlings and a detachment of the signal corps, has begun his northward advance from Tarlac, which will be continued to Bayombong, province of New Vizcaya.

MANILA, Nov. 18.—Generals MacArthur's and Lawton's commands were repelled near each other. General MacArthur was getting supplies in Tarlac, over the railroad from Bamban, with an engine which was raised from the river by the Ninth infantry. Colonel Howes, who occupied Victoria with six troops of the Third cavalry, advanced to Rosales. A letter was found at Victoria from Private Desmond of the signal corps, one of the 21 American prisoners held there. These prisoners, the letter said, were expecting to be taken to the mountains before the army arrived.

Two thousand insurgents were reported to be massing at Gerona, above Tarlac, and General MacArthur was said to be in the mountains west of Angeles, with 1,000 men, proposing to make raids. Rain had been falling throughout the month, and for the past week there had been a heavy downpour. The whole country was in bad condition.

MAJOR LOGAN'S REMAINS.

Secretary Root Ordered Them Sent Home. Admiral Dewey Sent Message to Mrs. Logan.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 18.—Mrs. John A. Logan, Jr., received a telegram from Secretary of War Root, notifying her that he had advised General Otis by cable to have the body of Major Logan exhumed and sent home. Major Webb C. Hayes, a personal friend of the late Major Logan, will reach Manila in a few days, and orders have been issued for him to take charge of the body and arrange for its shipment.

Mrs. Logan received the following telegram from Admiral Dewey:

"You have the sincere sympathy of Mrs. Dewey and myself in your great bereavement."
(Signed) "GEORGE DEWEY."
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A dispatch was received at the war department from General Otis saying that it was impossible to send the remains of the late Major John A. Logan to this country now and therefore he had been buried at Manila. Five days elapsed before the body could be sent from the battlefield to Manila. General Otis says that the servant of Major Logan with the effects of the Major sailed on the Sikh for the United States.

A fine portrait of Major Logan has been sent to the war department by Mrs. Logan, which is to be placed in the saloon of the transport Logan.

LAWTON PRAISES PRIVATES

A North Dakotan Held Off a Rebel Force—Then Helped Recover the Dead.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The war department made public the report of General Lawton upon his expedition in Laguna and the capture of Santa Cruz. The report is dated Aug. 1 and gives in detail the operations of the expedition, the main facts of which have heretofore been published. General Lawton spoke in the highest terms of the officers and men of his command.

At one point General Lawton described a gallant action in part as follows:

"With a view to securing a good place to re-embark the troops for the movement on Calamba, the North Dakota battalion was sent from Longos to reconnoiter the town of Paete, where it was reported a good landing place could be found. After advancing about one mile, the enemy was discovered entrenched across the road. Major Fraine disposed his command to execute a flank movement on the enemy, who were pouring a heavy fire into the advance guard, four of whom were killed and three wounded, one mortally.

"Of these, the latter and three killed belonged to a party of five flankers who had been sent up the hillside. The surviving comrade, Private Thomas Sketteland, Company C, First North Dakota, remained with them, and by his cool and unerring aim, successfully held the enemy back until reinforcements came. Then, after carrying his wounded comrade to the rear, he assisted in recovering the bodies of the killed. He has been recommended for a medal of honor."

Abandoned the Patria.

HAMBURG, Nov. 18.—The officials of the Hamburg-American line received a dispatch from Cuxhaven announcing that the company's steamer Athens, from Philadelphia for Hamburg, arrived there with the crew of the Hamburg-American steamer Patria, which caught fire off Dover, England. The dispatch also said that the Patria had been abandoned in flames and that there were no hopes of saving the vessel.

Soldier Died of Typhoid Fever.

Rev. Dr. Spruill Dead.

WILL STAND BY TAYLOR.

Bradley Expected to Resist Goebel, Who Has Moved to Throw Out Louisville's Vote.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 18.—The proposition at Louisville from Goebel's lawyers to throw out the entire vote of Jefferson county, which includes Louisville, was not wholly unlooked for by the Republican leaders here. It is now said Senator Deboe's visit here was for the purpose of ascertaining definitely to what extent governor Bradley will support Taylor in the event that Goebel is given the certificate of election, based on this proceeding. Senator Deboe and Governor Bradley are not on speaking terms and a third party acted as a "go-between."

Deboe said he was satisfied Bradley will stand by Taylor and will vigorously resist Goebel. Senator Lindsay will be asked to act as one of the attorneys for the anti-Goebel side, before the state election commission.

The Republicans found a precedent, established by the state election commission last year in which the board, by a unanimous vote, decided it was merely a canvassing board and had no power to pass on contests.

Taylor's lawyers now claim that under this decision the vote of Johnson and Knox counties, at least, must be counted as certified. They have not given an opinion as to the bearing of this ruling on the Jefferson county case.

If Jefferson county is thrown out the political complexion of the legislature will be affected, as one senator and seven representatives will have to be elected under a special election, to be called by the governor.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 18.—Attorneys for William Goebel filed notice with the local election board asking that the vote of the city of Louisville be thrown out. They claim that the election officers and voters were intimidated by the militia, ordered out by Governor Bradley on Nov. 7. If the election board throws out the vote of Louisville Goebel will have a safe plurality.

Burford S. Williams, Coleman Carr and Wingate Thompson, Democratic election officers of Franklin county, were indicted by the federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy and intimidation against colored voters.

To Build New Cruisers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The board of naval bureau chiefs decided on recommending the firms of those whose bids should be accepted for the six new protected cruisers. The successful firms were these: Union Iron works of San Francisco; Louis Nixon of Elizabethport, N. J.; Bath Iron works of Bath, Me.; J. R. Trigg company of Richmond, Va.; the Fore River company of Massachusetts; and Neale & Levy, Philadelphia.

For Antarctic Expedition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In the course of a lecture before the National Geographic society, Walter Wellman, leader of the Wellman expedition to the Arctic regions in 1898-9, suggested that the Geographic and other scientific societies of the national capital should memorialize congress to make an appropriation for an American Antarctic expedition. Mr. Wellman said $150,000 would be sufficient.

Emperor Started For England.

KIEL, Prussia, Nov. 18.—Emperor William, the empress and the younger princess arrived here and were received at the railway station by the elder princess. Empress Augusta Victoria, with the younger sons, immediately went on board the imperial yacht Hohenzoellern, and the emperor, accompanied by the two elder, attended a muster of naval recruits. They were on their way to England.

Minister Mysteriously Assassinated.

DEXTER, Mo., Nov. 18.—Much mystery surrounded the death of Rev. Jesse Moore, a Methodist minister, who was assassinated at his home near Pyle, six miles from Dexter. So far as known, the deceased minister had no enemies. Elijah Moore, one of his sons, was jailed at Bloomfield. The young man vigorously professed his innocence.

Arranging Treaty With Italy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Italian ambassador, Baron Pava, and Reciprocity Commissioner Kasson are exchanging notes concerning a new commercial arrangement between the United States and Italy, and the negotiations are proceeding so satisfactorily that hopes are expressed of a final conclusion at an early day.

Don't Expect Further Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—On instructions to watch for any signs of trouble from the Navajo Indians in Arizona, Agent Haygood telegraphed the Indian bureau that he had just returned from Flag town, the scene of the recent tragedy over Indian arrests, and that he does not apprehend any further trouble.

Earthquake Shook at Santiago.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Nov. 18.—A decided earthquake shock was felt here, lasting nearly half a minute. Several houses in the city were badly damaged, and the front of the marine hospital, blocking the street. No personal injuries were reported.

A Molinex Juror Ill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The trial of Roland B. Molinex was interrupted by the sudden illness of one of the jurors, Daniel Fraud. He was assisted from the court and physicians found that he was suffering from acute indigestion. Recorder Goff declared Mr. Fraud's seat in the jury box vacant.

Sir Richard Moon Dead.

RELIEF OF LADYSMITH.

Enough British Troops at the Front For Purpose.

BOERS READY FOR THE ADVANCE.

About 4,000 Burglers Sent From Johannesburg's Command to Join Botha's Force Near Estcourt—Prisoners Reported Well Treated at Pretoria.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The admiralty announced the arrival at Cape Town of the troopship Arcona with a battalion of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders (the Princess Louise's regiment), bringing the reinforcements up to 23,500, of which 7,290 have already disembarked at Durban, with 18 field guns, a number of machine guns, engineers and hospital troops, as well as 700 mules.

This force, with that already between Estcourt and Durban, is considered sufficient to enable General Hildyard to advance and to take the aggressive against the Boers south of Ladysmith.

According to advices Ladysmith was holding out satisfactorily, everything having been well up to Wednesday. In view of the Boer destruction of bridges, the war office has issued orders for the shipment of a quantity of bridge work between this and the end of the year.

It was reported that the British government had purchased the Creusot guns ordered by the Transvaal but not delivered.

An official dispatch confirmed the statement that Captain J. A. Haldane of the Gordon Highlanders, attached to the Dublin Fusiliers, and Lieutenant T. H. Frankland (not Franklin) and 37 non-commissioned officers and men of the Dublin Fusiliers are missing.

A dispatch from Lourenco Marques said:

"A Pretoria newspaper announced last Wednesday that 4,000 Burglers had left General Joubert's force around Ladysmith to join Commandant Botha's force near Estcourt, with a view to assisting to intercept the British advance to the relief of Ladysmith."

"General Lucas Meyer, the Free State commander, has asserted, in the course of an interview, that he is convinced that the battle of Elandslaagte will be the first and last Boer defeat of the year."

DURBAN, Thursday, Nov. 16.—A gentleman who was arrested at Johannesburg, taken to Pretoria and released, arrived here, via Delagoa bay. While at Pretoria he was confined on the race course with the military prisoners, comprising 52 officers and 1,275 non-commissioned officers and men from Natal, 10 officers and 25 non-commissioned officers and men from Mafeking and four men from Fort Tuli. The prisoners' guards were almost exclusively Germans and the artillerymen manning the forts were also mostly Germans. The prisoners were well fed and were shown every consideration. Most of the officers were removed to more comfortable quarters in the town.

PRETORIA, Thursday, Nov. 9.—The following dispatch was received from the Boer camp at Elandslaagte under today's date. "Ladysmith has been completely encircled by the Boer forces. Our second big gun was successfully placed in position on Bulwer hill, in front of Ladysmith. The firing of heavy guns commenced early this morning, with no casualties to the Burglers up to the present."

"Botha has heliographed from the south of Ladysmith that the British batteries opened a heavy fire with big guns and continuously dropped shells into the works around Ladysmith. The Pretoria force was in a tight place, having taken up a position commanded by the British fire, which was so hot that the position became untenable. The big gun, however, saved the situation."

PRETORIA, Wednesday, Nov. 15.—In an engagement yesterday morning, south of Ladysmith, the British advanced with 13 guns, attacking 300 Burglers of the Transvaal. A big gun was fired on the troops, who retired about 3 o'clock to a kloof near Ladysmith. The British loss is unknown. The Boers had one man killed and three wounded. In addition they had 13 horses killed and seven horses wounded.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—General Master Workman John N. Parsons of New York presided at the business session of the Knights of Labor general assembly. The greater part of the session was devoted to action on the report of the committee on appeals and grievances.

The proposition of the United Mine Workers of America to turn over that body to the Knights of Labor 12,000 miners, provided John Flannery, editor of The Trades Journal, was dropped from the order, was received coolly, as the assembly seemed to doubt the ability of the officials to make such a stupendous transaction without the 12,000 men having anything to say about it.

THE STRAINERS

The KIDNEYS are the great "strainers" of the blood. It is their duty to excrete all the poisons from the system. If they fail to do this, good health is impossible.

Are you certain that disordered kidneys are not the real cause of your ill health, whatever the apparent cause may be?

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so numerous and so different, that oftentimes the best of physicians are deceived and make the mistake of treating the various symptoms, without affecting in the least the real root of the trouble. The stomach, liver and heart are often treated locally to repress disturbances which arise from disordered kidneys. An error of this kind may cost you your life.

Even with the stomach or other organs diseased, health may be retained if the kidneys will do their full duty in excreting the poisons in the blood.

Neglect of the overtaxed or complaining kidneys will produce acute or chronic Bright's disease, diabetes, nephritis, gravel, uraemia, dropsy, rheumatism and many other dreaded diseases. Most female complaints are the direct result of disorder in the kidneys. Thousands of persons are suffering from diseases due to kidney trouble who do not realize the cause or the danger of their ailments.

Foley's Kidney Cure is guaranteed to bring health to the kidneys. (And it is, so far as we know, the only unconditionally guaranteed remedy for kidney diseases.)

It is a scientific, vegetable medicine, without any harmful properties and while acting directly on the kidneys, it is designed to strengthen the stomach, improve all organic action, cleanse the blood and speedily build up the whole system.

SYMPTOMS: Backache, bad digestion, dry mouth, parched or swollen tongue, bad breath, headache, nervousness, voracious appetite, weakness, frequent tearing, paleness or waxiness of complexion, wasting of flesh, dropsical tendency, itching and over the hips or lumbar, swollen ankles, sediment or deposit in the urine, bloody or milky white or highly colored urine, frequent desire to pass urine, scanty urine, bad odor of perspiration, numbness under the eyes, etc. One case does not produce all of these signs of disease. Any one symptom will indicate kidney or bladder disorder of some kind.

Foley's Kidney Cure is Guaranteed to remove the cause and the symptoms will disappear.

Mr. G. A. Sullivan, a merchant of Tampico, Tl., writes: "Your Kidney Cure has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself had been treated to its merits. My face is today a living picture of health, and your Kidney Cure has made it such. I had suffered twenty-seven years with the disease and today I feel ten years younger than I did one year ago."

STATE HOSPITAL.

The Board of Trustees Meets Friday.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL.

Dr. Eyman is Authorized to Organize One Among Attendants—The Course Will be of Two Years' Length and Will Consist of Lectures—Hospital Notes.

Messrs. Copeland, Perry and Carpenter were the only members of the board of trustees of the Massillon state hospital present at the regular monthly meeting of that body held in the superintendent's office, Friday afternoon. The annual report as to the condition of the institution was not considered, as its acceptance requires the signature of all members of the board. Another meeting of the board will be held in Cleveland next Thursday, when the report will be accepted and submitted to Governor Bushnell, and on his approval will be ready for the printers. The report, which is of a statistical nature, shows that the affairs of the institution are in an excellent condition.

At this meeting the trustees authorized Dr. Eyman to organize a training school for attendants. These schools are in existence in only a portion of similar institutions of the country. One was organized in the Cleveland hospital, during Dr. Eyman's superintendency, in 1891, and the latter thus had excellent opportunities to test the practicability and view the success of the movement, in the course of which he was a pioneer. The course in contemplation will be of two years' length, and will consist of lectures by the superintendent and physicians. The following will be some of the subjects: "General Nursing," "How to Act in Emergencies," "Care of the Sick," "Care of the Dying," "Use of Disinfectants," etc. It will be seen that the beneficial results of such a course can scarcely be overestimated.

Superintendent Eyman has now been in charge of the institution for three weeks, and has practically mastered all the details of his new duties. To say that he is pleased with them and with his new location is expressing it mildly. Said he yesterday, "each additional day that I remain in Massillon would make it doubly hard for me to return to the Cleveland institution, were I called upon to do so." In the comparatively short time that Dr. Eyman has been in control he has won the regard of everyone connected with the hospital, and the unanimous verdict is that Dr. Richardson has been worthily succeeded.

Brown F. Taggart, who sustained a broken limb by jumping from a train while being returned to the hospital, after an attempted escape, some time ago, and who later again broke the same limb before it was firmly set, in a second attempt, has about recovered. With the exception of a slight limp he has excellent use of the limb.

During the month ending November 15, eight new patients have been received. Of these, six are from Stark county, one from Columbiana, and one from Sandusky. During the same month there were three deaths. The general health of those about the institution has never been better. Out of the 361 inmates of the hospital, but a few are ill in bed.

Attendant Frank Adair sustained a dislocated elbow Friday afternoon, by falling off a sofa, while engaged in a friendly tussle with a patient.

Mrs. Harriet Peck is now performing the duties of housekeeper. Mrs. Peck formerly filled a like position in the Cleveland hospital.

Attendant A. V. Wilson is visiting his parents in Cambridge.

The usual dance was held at the institution Friday evening.

DWIGHT L. MOODY ILL.

Broken In Health and Has Heart Trouble.

ENROUTE TO NORTHFIELD, MASS.

We Had to Be Taken Away From Kansas City, Where He Was Conducting Big Meetings—It Is Believed His Preaching Days Are Over.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 18.—Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, who has been preaching here to thousands nightly in Convention hall, is broken in health and is suffering from heart trouble. His engagement here was cut short and he is enroute for his home at Northfield, Mass., in the care of Dr. Schaffner of this city and Mr. O. M. Vining, teller of the Union National bank.

They are traveling in a special car provided by the committee of churchmen who brought Mr. Moody to Kansas City, and are going over the Wabash, by way of Chicago and Buffalo.

It is admitted that Mr. Moody's condition is serious, though when the evangelist was seen at his hotel, shortly before being taken to the railway station, he expressed the belief that his condition was not serious. He stated that he was feeling very weak, and added:

"I have had trouble with my heart for a good many years, but I never felt weak as I do now. There is nothing alarming about my condition, I believe."

Since last Sunday night the evangelist has been preaching in Convention hall, where the audience, on several occasions, have numbered close to 15,000. Several times he has spoken with difficulty and has been compelled at times to sit up all night, as he could not breathe while lying down. He was too ill to go to the hall and a large audience which had gathered was turned away.

The reports as to the seriousness of Mr. Moody's condition were conflicting. Several of his intimate friends stated that while his condition was serious, it was not critical. These friends, however, reluctantly admitted that they believe his career as a great public speaker was nearing the end.

Dr. Schaffner said that in his opinion the evangelist's condition was not essentially worse than for some time past, and that he was simply exhausted from his recent exertions before the big crowds that have gathered to hear him. Dr. Schaffner added, however, that Mr. Moody must have quiet and rest.

The Cabinet Meeting. WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The cabinet meeting was brief and unimportant. General satisfaction was expressed with the result of Secretary Gage's invitation for the purchase of bonds. The secretary of agriculture outlined his plans for extending the work of his department to Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine islands.

Murdered a Woman.

GALIPOLIS, O., Nov. 18.—Angel Hazlett murdered Mrs. Charles Neubert, near the hamlet of Chambersburg. The cause of the murder was a family quarrel. There were no witnesses but Hazlett's wife. Hazlett deliberately crossed the road and shot Mrs. Neubert while she was sweeping in the yard. He told his wife of the crime and then disappeared.

DEATH OF A HOSPITAL PATIENT.

A state hospital patient named Essenden died of paresis at the institution on Wednesday. The body was shipped to Kent for burial today.

MRS. RICHARD KRAUSER.

CRYSTAL SPRING, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Richard Krauser, aged 32 years, died at her home here this afternoon at 3:15, after an illness of four weeks with lung fever. She is survived by a husband and six children. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

There is no more trying work than the weaver's. Added to the confinement, the heat and the impure air, there is often an amount of physical exertion which seems incredible. In the manufacture of plush, for example, those who cut the pile have to walk about thirty miles a day. And with every step of that thirty miles they breathe in vitiated air filled with particles of dust, poisonous coloring matter and other substances, irritating to the throat and lungs. It is no wonder that so many mill hands have an obstinate cough or that so many of them die of "lung trouble."

It is to operatives whose work makes them peculiarly liable to lung disease that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes as a priceless boon. It positively cures deep seated and obstinate coughs, bronchial affections, bleeding of the lungs, and other diseases which if neglected lead to consumption.

When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Champlain, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room, without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription.' Which I did. At times I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

You can consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely without charge. He will carefully consider your condition, and write you fully, giving you familiar, fatherly advice as well as medical direction. Your letter will be held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Drink Grain-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine, but doctors order it because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich, deep brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee, and costs about one-fourth as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink, containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

Dr. H. H. Haden, Summit, Ala., says, "I think Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a splendid medicine. I prescribe it, and my confidence in it grows with continued use." It digests what you eat, and quickly cures dyspepsia and indigestion. Rider & Snyder and Chas. W. Cupples.

A Michigan Miracle

Speech Restored after Nearly 13 Years.

The Ypsilanti Commercial, Ypsilanti, Mich. Many things appear miraculous that are really the result of natural laws, the workings of which can be accurately predicted. A striking example of this occurred in a prominent Michigan family recently, and there can be no question as to the truthfulness of the narrative since it is attested by Mrs. Harriet Begole, of Ypsilanti, Mich., a sister-in-law of Mr. Joshua Begole, who was Governor of Michigan in 1883-4. Mrs. Begole said:

"In 1886 I suffered from a severe illness, during which my voice left me and I did not speak above a whisper for nearly 13 years."

"I was treated by five local physicians and afterward consulted leading specialists of New York. They diagnosed my case as partial paralysis, stating that the left side of my throat was entirely paralyzed, the right side partially so. For nearly eight years I have suffered from a severe stomach disorder and about a year ago I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

"My stomach trouble was relieved, my general health became greatly improved and to my surprise I regained control of my vocal organs. I have used five boxes of the pills and last November I spoke aloud for the first time in almost 13 years. I am now 71 years of age and have full control of my voice."
